

BUILT IN 1765

for the BOTANIC GARDEN on Leith Walk
(gable end of Haddington Place and close to McDonald Road Library)

• EDINBURGH •
THE CITY OF EDINBURGH COUNCIL

Supported by The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

What about 1865?

What about 1965?

What HAS it been used for during the last 243 years?

Do you have any information at all about this Cottage? We hope it will be dismantled in the near future to be rebuilt elsewhere.

- * Did you ever work here?
- * Do you know any stories about it?
- * Were you ever inside it?

SUNDAY 19th OCTOBER 2008

in McDonald Road Library (Nelson Hall)
anytime between 2 and 4 pm

Come and tell us anything you can about this historic building, the area around it and hear about the Botanic Cottage Project

 we know some of its history but not nearly enough ***

Exhibition and refreshments

More info from: Eileen Dickie 0131 556 0903
Botanic Cottage Project Group Friends of Hopetoun Crescent Garden

Project funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

Minuteman Press
The First & Last Step In Printing.

Elm Row, Leith Walk
Supporting the Local Community